Dunsmore Living Landscape - Cookies Policy

First party cookies

This website uses cookies. We've listed each of them below with more details about why we use them and how long they will last.

Cookies set by this website

This website is built using the WordPress platform. WordPress uses cookies only in relation to users that have registered accounts with the website, including website administrators. At the time of writing, general users are not able to hold accounts with this website and therefore will not have cookies stored on their machines by virtue of the WordPress platform this site is built on.

Third party cookies

We use a number of third party service providers that provide additional functionality to our website. These third party services may also set cookies when you visit our web site. Although Dunsmore Living Landscape embeds code within our website to enable these services, it does not control the dissemination of cookies relating to these services. You should check the third party service providers for more information about these and their cookie policies.
